

Geosyntec is an employee-owned firm specializing in consulting and engineering for private and public sector clients to address their new ventures and complex problems involving the environment, natural resources, and the civil infrastructure. Geosyntec has a staff of over 700 engineers, scientists, and other technical and project staff located in more than 40 offices throughout the U.S. and in Canada, Malaysia, and the United Kingdom.

We have a single position available for an entry level hydrogeologist in our Kennesaw, Georgia office. The ideal candidate will provide environmental consulting services in the site assessment and remediation arena.

Responsibilities	Candidate Attributes
Duties will include, but not be limited to:	The ideal candidate will:
❖ Field support for investigative, monitoring, and remediation programs	❖ Possess an outstanding academic track record
❖ Hydrogeological data evaluation, visualization, and reporting	❖ Display exceptional interpersonal skills and outstanding oral, verbal, and written communication skills
❖ Remediation technology evaluation cost estimating and design	❖ Demonstrate excellent technical writing skills for environmental consulting applications outstanding engineering/scientific problem-solving abilities
❖ Environmental due diligence and regulatory compliance services	❖ Demonstrate passion for the business of environmental consulting, technical excellence, and quality
❖ Preparation of technical reports and proposals.	❖ Express leadership potential and a commitment to lifelong learning and growth

Qualifications

A Masters or Ph.D. degree in geology with an emphasis in hydrogeology is strongly preferred. The minimum qualifications for this position are a Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university in geology, earth sciences, or a related discipline. Familiarity with technical requirements for site remediation and other state and federal environmental permitting regulations is desirable. The ability and willingness to perform fieldwork and travel are also required. The ability to become professionally licensed is highly advantageous.

This position requires successful completion of 40 hours of OSHA health and safety training for working with potentially contaminated materials (provided, as needed), annual 8-hour refresher courses, first aid training (every three years), CPR training (every year), and annual medical monitoring.

To Apply

To apply, please submit your resume and cover letter via the professional employment area of our website at www.geosyntec.com. When you create your profile, please select the Kennesaw, Georgia office location for the position; include the reference ID number 30350 and the name of the position.

An EEOC/Equal Opportunity Employer